Scouting for Food 2020

A NEW TAKE ON AN OLD CLASSIC

Thank you...

- ▶ For your patience and understanding as we navigate this new world together
- ▶ For your volunteer time as we try something new

Take what you know about SFF

Just the FACTS

- ▶ We will not be printing door hangers
- ▶ We will not be doing any in person activity on November 7
- ▶ We will not be collecting food from door steps
- ▶ We will not be collecting clothing

What we will be doing...

- ▶ We will have food only donation drop off locations on November 14, for the community to drop food off at
- ▶ Our Food Bank will also be receiving monetary donations
- ▶ We will be giving you a PDF flyer for email and content for social media to deliver to the community
- ▶ We will need your help in spreading the word

Tips for Success

- ▶ Share this flyer more than once!
 - ▶ Post it on all your social media accounts...more than once!
- ▶ Ask your COR to put this in their bulletins, social media accounts, websites
 - ▶ Keep a tracker to identify who is doing it
- ▶ Build a campaign
 - ▶ Record a Scout in uniform giving facts on hunger and how you can donate to help (under 2 min video)

Service Hour Ideas

- ▶ Scouts can make signs for the neighborhood
- ▶ Scouts can stand on busy street corners near drop off sites with additional signage
- ▶ Scouts can go to local businesses that are open and ask to put the flyer in their window
- ▶ If there is a local organization that is also accepting food in your area, you may use the fillable pdf flyer to guide donors there (please count the food though)

Drop Off Sites 9am – 1pm Nov 14
