Color Outside the Lines

Women, Girls, Allies, & Champions in Scouting

December 2 – 4 at the Four Points by Sheraton, Pleasanton

Mission Statement:

As Scouting continues to evolve and move forward, a space is being created where female leaders, both current and the next generation, work with men and boys who openly act as allies and champions. This synergy is creating an open and inclusive environment that will maximize the scouting experience for all.

Goals:

- Build synergy between women and girls in Scouting
- Bring men and male youth in as allies and champions
- Celebrate the achievements of women and girls in scouting
- Maximizing what scouting can be for girls and women and addressing their outdoor needs
- Developing Female Leaders: current leaders and the next generation of leaders

Who Should Attend:

- Adult female scouters
- Female Scouting youth, Star and up
- Adult male scouters and male youth scouts (Star and up) who are ready to be allies and champions
- Professional BSA staff
